

DIGITAL HUMANITIES VIRTUAL LECTURES

DIGITAL HUMANITIES CENTER

The Virtual Lectures series includes book talks, guest scholars, and more-- all for the sharing of ideas and expansion of knowledge. Events are held on Zoom and open to the public. Registration required.

REGISTER: <https://teachdh.sdsu.edu/programming>

Sept 24: 11am-12pm

Jessica Pressman (SDSU) - Book talk with American Antiquarian Society about forthcoming Bookishness: Loving Books in a Digital Age (Columbia UP, 2020)

Oct 1: 5pm-6pm

Elizabeth Hunter (SFSU) - "Something Wicked": the Macbeth video game

Oct 19: 12pm-1:30pm

Fredrick Luis Aldama (Ohio State) and Bill Nericcio (SDSU) - Book talk about-Talking #BrownTV: Latinas and Latinos on the Screen (Ohio State UP, 2019)

Nov 2: 2-3pm

Joanna Brooks (SDSU)- Book talk- Mormonism and White Supremacy: American Religion and The Problem of Racial Innocence (Oxford UP, 2020)

Nov 17: 1-2pm

Dr. Erika Bsumek (UT-Austin) - Thinking Critically with ClioVis

✉ digitalhumanities@sdsu.edu

🐦 @dhatsdsu

Library

